

Role of APSP

- The Andhra Pradesh Special Police, is a para-military force of the State within the organization of Andhra Pradesh Police. Its main role is to assist the local police in times of emergencies.
- It may also be called upon to maintain Law & Order within the Country in close Co-operation with other State Police or the Armed Forces of the Union.
- The APSP should normally be deployed in platoon formation.
- Superintendent of Police of the district in which the force is deployed is responsible to arrange for the basic amenities before the deployment is ordered.